SHOSHONE-BANNOCK CASINO HOTEL ANNOUNCES OUTDOOR ANDY GRAMMER CONCERT

FORT HALL, IDAHO – The Shoshone-Bannock Casino Hotel announces we could have another, and we probably should—because chart-topping singer-songwriter Andy Grammer is set to perform live on Friday, June 6, 2025, as part of his Monster Tour. This special one-night-only event will be held outdoors on the west side of the Casino Hotel property, bringing high energy and heartfelt music under the summer stars.

With multiple platinum singles and a career built on optimism and authenticity, Andy Grammer continues to inspire global audiences. Known for uplifting hits like “Honey, I’m Good,” “Keep Your Head Up,” and “Don’t Give Up On Me,” Grammer’s music brings joy, connection, and perseverance to the stage.

His latest album, Monster, dives deep into personal growth and the courage to face life’s trials head-on—blending vulnerability with vibrant, Americana-inspired sound. This is more than a performance—it’s a celebration of music, community, and resilience. Grammer’s live shows are known for turning crowds into choirs and strangers into friends.

“There’s a relationship between artist and listener—like a close friendship,” Grammer says. “When we all end up singing it together at the top of our lungs—that’s what makes life explosive.”
