SHOSHONE-BANNOCK CASINO HOTEL ANNOUNCES MARK WILLS FOR MARCH CONCERT

FORT HALL, IDAHO — Due to scheduling conflicts, Fountains of Wayne will no longer be performing on March 7. The Shoshone-Bannock Casino Hotel apologizes for any inconvenience this may cause and appreciates your understanding. Ticket purchasers will be automatically refunded. The Chiefs Event Center is still scheduled for a concert that night as Mark Wills will take the stage for a high-energy night built around the songs that carried so many late-'90s and early-2000s country playlists.

Grand Ole Opry member and hitmaker behind "19 Somethin'," Wills rose from early performances around Atlanta to releasing 19 Billboard-charting singles across seven albums, including Gold and Platinum certifications. His breakout "Jacob's Ladder" launched a run of major hits, followed by fan favorites like "Places I've Never Been," "Don't Laugh at Me," "I Do (Cherish You)," and the No. 1 single "Wish You Were Here." He earned Academy of Country Music recognition as Top New Male Vocalist and later delivered one of his signature tracks, the Gold-certified "19 Somethin'," which spent multiple weeks at No. 1 on the Billboard Hot Country Songs chart.

In recent years, Wills re-recorded "Don't Laugh at Me" with Home Free, featuring his daughter, Macey, and he has also traveled extensively to entertain U.S. service members overseas.

Tickets for the March 7, 2026 show will be available Friday, February 6 at 10am. For event updates, announcements, and best ticket prices, visit Shoshone-Bannock Casino Hotel online at shobangaming.com or follow our verified social media pages.
