SHOSHONE-BANNOCK CASINO HOTEL ANNOUNCES DAVID LEE ROTH

FORT HALL, IDAHO — Rock and roll icon David Lee Roth is bringing his legendary voice, electrifying stage presence, and decades of hits to the Shoshone-Bannock Casino Hotel on Saturday, July 18, 2026.

As the unforgettable frontman of Van Halen, Roth helped define an era of rock music with songs that still thunder through speakers today, including “Jump,” “Panama,” “Hot for Teacher,” and “Runnin’ with the Devil.” With his high-energy performances, unmistakable vocals, and larger-than-life charisma, Roth helped propel Van Halen into one of the most influential rock bands of the 1980s and beyond.

With more than 80 million records sold worldwide, Van Halen’s legacy remains one of the most enduring in rock history. Roth’s contributions to that legacy played a major role in the band’s induction into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, helping cement his place among the genre’s most recognizable and celebrated performers.

Beyond his work with Van Halen, Roth built a solo career that further showcased his distinctive style, fearless personality, and unmatched performance energy. Decades into his career, he continues to command the stage with the same fire that made him a rock and roll legend in the first place.

The July 18 performance promises a night of classic rock spectacle at the Shoshone-Bannock Casino Hotel, giving fans the chance to experience one of music’s most iconic voices live in Fort Hall.

Tickets will go on sale Friday, April 17th, 2026 at 10 a.m.
